Speaking Tour

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—Social Credit holds the only solution to the muddled finances of today, it was declared here last night by Rev. Hewlett Johnson, dean of Canterbury

He turned to the stock argument of Major C. H. Douglas, founder of Social Credit and all adherents of his theories—that it was inevitable under present-day finance that national income could not equal national production, eventually leading to chaos.

MONEY IN POCKET

There must be, he said, sufficient money in the pockets of all people to buy back the goods their production or industrial wheels slowed down, men lost jobs, hunger and misery followed. Under Social Credit, national income and national production would be equated by national dividends "paid from the day you are born until the day you die."

BALANCE FOR BOOM

The aim of Social Credit was to find out the deficiency between income and production and add sufficient money to the system to overcome it. "Then we will have a perpetual boom in business."

It would be necessary to keep a national account book where salary es, incomes, dividends and all sources of assets were listed on one side. On the other side, production of all sorts, from automobiles to wheat, would be listed. The two totals would be compared to show the amount of money necessary to make it possible for a country to buy the goods it produces and banish poverty from its borders.

IS NOT INFLATION

It would not be inflation to use the national credit for this purpose, Dean Johnson declared. The gov-

Under Social Credit, everyone would be given a national dividend to help swell the nation's purchasing power. "I really believe dividends given to everyone, instead of demoralizing them and making everyone lazy, will sift free a wonderful fund of creative energy." It would permit people to escape from the devastating drive for money, enabling them to pursue real leisure and devote time to the arts, their hobbies and the sciences.

Soviet Instigates Canada Trouble Avers Bennett

In the course of an address delivered under the auspices of the Canadian and other service clubs, Mr. Bennett voiced a plea for the use of "constructive and constitutional" methods to reach the social and economic objectives which were common to all parties.

It had been "flagrantly indicated to the world," Mr. Bennett said, that disorders occurring in Canada and United States had been instigated by agents of the Soviet. "The movement against Ottawa was not accidental but was carefully planned. They would overthrow responsible government and set up Soviet in Canada."

GRID ATTACK ON MONTREAL CLUB CHANGES

CHICAGO'S faltering Cubs reached out one game nearer the National League pennant and the world series yesterday when they marked up their fifteenth consecutive victory at the expense of the New York Giants. It was their third straight win of the current series and, as St. Louis Cardinals also won, there was no change at the head of the parade, except an increase of the teams' lead over the New Yorks. It becomes more and more evident daily that Cubs and Cardinals will be the teams fighting it out for the National League championship.

Incidentally, while on the subject of baseball, it might be mentioned that the Philadelphia Athletics, so deep in red ink that the grand old club, Connie Mack, is struggling the American League in the interests of night baseball. The venerable leader is also expected to haul out the Philadelphia club and then some this fall by selling James E. Foy, Roger Cramer and Pink Higgins to the immensely rich Boston Red Sox.

There is no question but that young Thomas Austin Yawkey is keenly disappointed with the Red Sox, to whom the Hub City fans have remained so loyal. Joe Cronin realizes that the Red Sox will be even weaker in 1935 unless there are replacements. "We'll have to get a new pitcher," says Yawkey, "and I can't be expected to carry on again next year the way they have this season. It would be foolish to expect them to go out there day in and day out only to see us fail to beat in enough runs for them to win especially 'Grove'."

"We need at least one great slugger and at least one other good hitter. Why, by the way, after our game we left 22 men on the bases in one game. Just think that a Fox, a Hank Greenberg, or a Lou Gehrig would have cleared us out of there in less than half an hour. We're in the market. We'll talk business with anyone."

CHIRICH and Greenberg are for sale at any price, but with cash, and requiring ready cash, and even in Philadelphia, caring one way or the other, it is reasonable to expect that Yawkey, who is down to his last $38,000, will purchase Fox, and, in disposing of his home-run king, Mack may go all the way and get all he can for Clume Higgins too. Fox has repeatedly expressed a desire to escape from Shibe Park. Mack's statement that only two months and his 1935 team, Wally Moore and little Rabbit Warfield hustled is taken by many as a warning intended to muzzle, if possible, the cries of the Philadelphia fans interested enough to complain when the batter is docked.

QUINN DENIES BASEBALL DEAL PRAIRIE HOCKEY STAR ARRESTED

OTTAWA, Sept. 18.—Earl Nicholson, 28, former Moose Jaw, Regina and Saskatoon hockey star who was traded to play with the Yorkton, Sask., hockey team next winter, was arrested Wednesday as he stepped off a train from the west.

To route to England to play hockey for Richmond Hawks, the westerner was apprehended following receipt of a telegram from Yorkton stating that he had been on a charge of obtaining board and lodging by false pretenses at Yorkton.

Nicholson was arrested by police at Yorkton. He is being held in the city jail. Nicholson was released from the west.

The hockey player told detectives he had been in Yorkton for the past five months with the intention of playing hockey there during the coming winter. The Yorkton club officials, however, for his room and board for that period. When the offer came for a better job in England he decided to accept it. He told one of the Yorkton club officials before leaving for the east he was going to Buffalo, Nicholson said.

Nicholson said his suit charged gross neglect and was not contested. They were married in October, 1930.

Gebo, Apurri, was the only favorite to win, taking the first race without much opposition. The only horse to pay double figures, against the second to return $10.00.

JUNIORS PLAY SERIES FINAL HERE SUNDAY Orange Crush Wins Brace Of Softball Games At Calgary

Safeways and Grits to Battle to Finish Sunday Afternoon

The bitter Junior Baseball final will be fought to a finish at Boyle Street stadium on Sunday afternoon with Safeway and Grits and New Grits starting a possible doubleheader at 2:30 o'clock.

Safeways, needing only one more triumph for the necessary quota of four, can end the series abruptly with one more winning game, but one more will be necessary to decide the series.

Grits will be fighting hard to get Sunday's first club and stay in this play-off. They will probably shut Ruff Wynn on the mound, holding Tougas in check for a possible second game.

Safeways, on the other hand, also have their ace twirler in readiness for the initial Sunday encounter. He's Halp Morgan and the stocky individual who has kept Safeways right in the running. Should Safeways lose first to Grits, then they will have Lloyd Cunningham in to serve for the possible second tie.

Crushites Are Practically Certain of Alberta Championship

CALGARY, Sept. 18.—With lethal power in their bats, and fielding near perfect, Orange Crush girls virtually captured championship honors for Alberta softball with a double triumph of 3-5 and 4-5 over Calgary Flashes yesterday.

The Edmonton girls, rated as the strongest squad ever to come out of the north, played up to all advance niggers with their double victory over the Flashes at Mewata park, and with their game lead need only one more triumph in the remaining two games, which will be played in Edmonton.

As the Flashes had won the first game, played in the capital city last week, the successive defeats yesterday came as a rude jolt to the Calgary squad and local fans, as they expected that the Flashes would take at least one of the games, and they might have done this in the evening encounter if they had come through with hits any stage of the game. But they failed to do this.

Halp Morgan, pitching in the ninth, being the only player to get a safe drive.

The afternoon game saw the Edmonton team score one in the first inning, then a second and a third, and a fourth home run on an over throw to the sack.

The Flashes replied with two in the home run.

The Flashes had two batters reach the sack in the sixth, but failed to score. Edmonton getting one in the half of the frame as Newman singled and Martin batted out a home run.

Rampaging Cubs Capture Wild and Woolly Game Easily — Terry Leaves Game Disgusted

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Chicago's rampaging Cubs ran their spectacular winning streak to 15 Wednesday by crushing New York Giants 15-3 in a wild and woolly game that left 35,000 pop-eyed fans wondering if Bill Terry's men were in the National League.

The decisive victory, decided in a wild fourth inning when the Cubs bunched seven hits with three Giants errors to score eight runs was the third in succession over New York. The Cubs had 45 games behind the wild Cubs. It was the most crushing defeat of the season for Terry, who left the game in disgust in the seventh inning.

With Charley Root, the "grandpappy" of the pitching staff, muffled the Giant's bats that struck him, the Cubs had a field day, collecting 20 hits off three pitchers. Eddie Cullerham, Harry Gumbert and Frank Baker.

Quitted stopping after their eighth run assault, the Cubs scored four more runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth before they left on their fire.

Cardinals Rally To Beat Dodgers

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 18.—Threatened with another upset by the Dodgers of the same sort that struck them Tuesday, St. Louis Cardinals came through with a stirring seventh-inning rally Wednesday to defeat Brooklyn 4-3 and hold their place 2½ games behind the Chicago Cubs.

The triumph increased the Cards' lead to four games over their recent conquerors, the three-place New York Giants, who were buried by the Cubs today.

After jumping ahead in the first inning, the Cards fell behind in the sixth when the Dodgers bunched three of their six blows off Bill Halahan for a pair of runs.

Cardie, who had been brought in as usual, picking up one run in the sixth, then bunting out Ron Zachary out in the seventh to take the lead.
